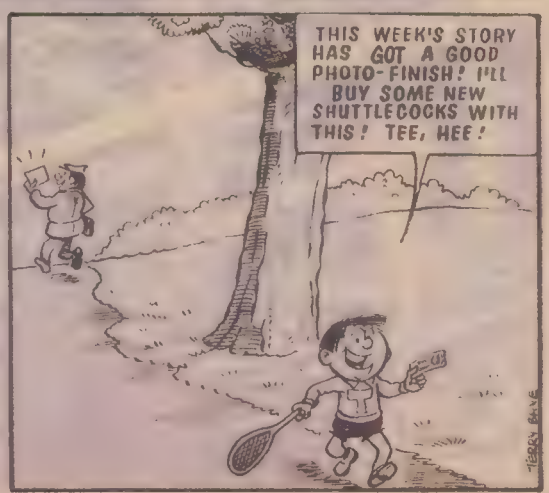
COO!



ON A SUICIDE RUN, WITH NOT ENOUGH FUEL TO GET BACK, YOU RUN INTO THE BOMBS AND TORPEDOES OF 400 AMERICAN AIRCRAFT. WILL YOU SURVIVE?

The giant 72,809-ton (gross tonnage) Yamato, pride of the Japanese navy, was sunk in April 1945 by about 10 American torpedoes and 23 bombs.

Today, however, she sails again.

This Yamato, by Minic, is a faithful 1:1200 scale model made from tough die-cast metal, painted and detailed to look exactly like the real thing.

There's a whole Minic battlefleet to fight with: The Bismarck, KM's Scharnhorst, HMS Bulwark and HMS Vanguard and USS Missouri.

All the gun turrets are fully-swivelling and HMS Bulwark, the aircraft carrier, even has its own squadron of Hellfighters on deck. Hidden 'glidewheels' under the hull let your ships sneak up silently on the enemy, across any surface.

There are Quayside and Fleet Anchorage sets to moor your ships when they're not fighting.

And a lot of scope for you to re-create the famous battles of World War II.

We're sure you'll win them all.

Minic fighting ships, £1.35 each (suggested retail price). Accessories and gift packs, £2.50 to £4.95.

Dear Editor,

I would like to tell you about an experience I had whilst I was horse riding. I was happily trotting along on my pony (who's name is Bubbles) when my friend's pony accidentally kicked mine. Bubbles, as a result, took off like a bullet, and he'd galloped three fields before I could steady him. Anyway, here's a picture of me and my sister . . . I am on the right.

JANETTE BRASSEY, Bromborough.

'Neigh', let's not make a joke about that . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

My friends and I were out roller-skating one day when we came across a super hill to skate down. We all went down it, one behind the other. Unfortunately, my friend at the back went too fast. He hit a low wall at the bottom, went straight over the top and landed right in a puddle on the other side. Luckily, he wasn't hurt, but he did look funny.

PAUL STAFFORD, Leicester.

Here's a photograph of some wonderful embroidery that MANDY PILGRIM from MANSFIELD has done. She used lots of different coloured wool, and we're only sorry we couldn't print the photograph in colour, so you could all see just how nice her finished work looks. We certainly seem to have some very clever readers. Well done, Mandy, and there's a £1 postal order on its way to you as a reward . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I have devised a slightly different type of crossword for other readers to try. If all the clues are answered correctly, another word will be spelt in the bold squares.

GRAEME PIKE, Heaton.

CLUES:

1. A quick-change expert.
2. A very jolly elephant.
3. She owns a magic locket.
4. The World's nastiest baby.
5. A spooky vehicle.
6. Prof. Cube's creation.
7. A regular trouble-maker.

Dear Editor,

This is the first letter I have ever written. I read quite a bit of WHOOPEE! which my brother gets every week. (He's helping me with this letter). My favourite football team is Manchester United, so please will you print a picture of their num. r 9, Stuart Pearson . . . ?

DAVID ANDERSON, Darlington. (Aged 5)

Let's hope that "The Reds" have more luck next season, after just missing the League Championship and the F.A. Cup this year. Here's Stuart Pearson for you, David . . . Editor.

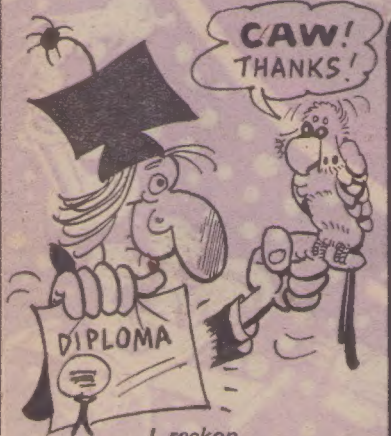
Dear Editor,

Recently I went on a day's outing to Wembley Stadium to see the Women's Hockey International between England and Scotland. While I was there I saw Ed Stewart and The Duchess of Gloucester. The match was very exciting, and the noise made by the 60,000 spectators (mostly girls) was tremendous. By the way, England won 3-0.
JULIE TOWNSEND, Yeadon.

Dear Editor,

I thought you might like to hear about my budgie, Smokey. He is 1½ years old, has a yellow head, blue tail, green and blue body and white and grey wings. As soon as I bought him I decided I would teach him to talk. He now says: "Pretty boy, Smokey. Shut up, budgie. Merry Christmas. Beautiful. Darling. Batman (he learnt that from the television). Give us a kiss." And he wolf whistles, makes kissing noises and whistles pretty tunes.
KATHERINE WIGNALL, Chelmsford.



I reckon you ought to teach him to say: "Smokey's a clever boy!" because he certainly is just that . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

One day my brother asked me to hold his guinea-pig, called Flash, while he cleaned out its hutch. But Flash jumped out of my hands and ran off round the garden. I dived after him, but he was just too quick. Then he stuck his head in a red ants' nest, sat on a black ants' nest and made a grab for a bee who happened to fly by. I was so glad when I eventually caught him.
GRAHAM CURRIE, Litherland.

Dear Editor,

I can't buy WHOOPEE! here in Canada, so my grandpa in Coventry sends me his copy when he's finished reading it. My mum reads each copy after me, then we give them to our local library, to put in the library's comic book exchange section.
BARRY BENGER, Alberta.

Your grandpa reads WHOOPEE! does he? I wonder if he's our oldest reader? . . . Editor.
